

A Letter from Piecemakers

To all our Dear friends and Faithful customers,

After much discussion and thought we have decided to end the publishing of our Piecemakers Quilt Calendar with this year's 2017, 30th Edition.

Together we have traveled many roads, crossed many streams, even explored underwater life, and now comes the time to say goodbye to a dear part of our lives, but "hello" to new adventures and ideas.

We're not going anywhere — we'll continue to provide the quality and care of Piecemakers products you have come to know and expect.

We'll also be offering Anniversary specials throughout the year and keep you up-to-date on new projects.

Marie, our founder said, "Everything has a beginning and an end." We can't wait to see what surprises lie ahead!

God's blessings to you,
From all of us at Piecemakers

P.S. We have an online Quilt Gallery for Piecemakers Quilts made by our customers. If you have pictures of your Calendar quilts please send them to us at mail@piecemakers.com. If you would like to include a brief story about your quilt we will post it with your quilt.
