

THE WORD OF THE LORD TO A SICK AND HYPOCRITICAL NATION

Behold the night is far spent, the day is at hand and every evil deed, thought and word spoken in the night season will hold that individual responsible.

As the Holy Spirit comes with a convicting fire every devious word spoken will return upon the speaker. People will be crying out for a new heart and a right spirit as did David the king.

We will then see in that hour as we have been measuring our life with other people's lives, our plumb line will now be the pure and Holy Spirit of God. All will be convicted — all convicts, no C.O.'s — just a bunch of human beings on their knees asking for mercy and forgiveness.

Then, my dear sojourner, we won't have to try to convert other countries to our so-called Christian democracy; they will see a great light and follow it... the wise and the foolish.

Marie

Marie Kolasinski
December 9, 2011