

FEW ARE CHOSEN

For many are called — but few are chosen. Matthew 20:14

Hey, I thought we Catholics were the chosen ones. Hey, I thought we Jews were the chosen ones. Hey, I thought we Christians were the chosen ones.

If you know your scriptures, you will notice one important fact — that the few that are chosen are just that — chosen by God.

To lay the foundation of a new dispensation, God chooses the people who will lay the foundation as he chose Noah to build the ark as a cross or cocoon into a new world. As he chose Jesus and the apostles to build an ark, (the cross. After the few chosen vessels have done what they are called to do, then we have the multitudes being called. There has to be something to be called into before the call goes out.

Always before a new dispensation, the old is wiped out by the “waters of Noah” or the Holy Spirit. Thus we read: “Moses, my servant is dead. Therefore-----.” The job given to Moses and the people involved in the coming out of Egypt experience all had to die before the next move of God took place.

John the Baptist had to have his head cut off before Jesus could do what the Holy Spirit had Him to do. Then Jesus had to die before the Holy Spirit working with the apostles, prophets and all who got involved in setting up the church for a new age began — the end of one age and the beginning of another.

He came into the world for His own and His own knew Him not. The Jews were looking for their Messiah the way the Christians are looking for "the second coming" and it can be said for both, “He came into the world for his own and his own knew him not.”

So Piecemakers have been called to lay the foundation for a new two thousand year dispensation. Setting up what was known as the “church” age two thousand years ago were the twelve disciples including Judas. They are the twelve who knew Christ after the flesh. They were chosen. To build God’s house called the church.the message went out and the people were called to make a choice. Because we are born with a will, in a sense, He chooses us but we must will to walk with Him, die daily, and ultimately become His will on earth. Each must stand before the judgment seat of Christ alone. Will we humble ourselves and become part of the new age or will we reject him as did the Jews two thousand years ago.

The word “chosen” is the same as the Greek word “ek” — “the point from whence motion or action proceeds”. As we see the Holy Spirit begin to hover over the waters of the deep and bring forth a new age He admonishes us and makes it possible to conform to the image of His Son. “Therefore, laying aside all deceit, all malice, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking as new born babes desire the pure milk of the word that you may grow thereby if indeed you have known that the Lord is gracious.”

There is a stirring. The Holy Spirit is causing a big change of mind, reasoning, thinking and people are becoming sane. We will hear more and more people filled with anxiety as God enters the hearts and minds of the human race. Let us all acknowledge Him in all the good times and bad and He will direct our paths. Please for the love of God do not lean on your own understanding as we all have shallow understanding and He is opening up the eyes of our understanding so we understand the ways of man and God. Only with the eyes of our understanding open will we have communion with one another. With new understanding our hearts will speak the same language.

Let us all reach out a hand to those in need instead of punishing them with a jail sentence. Our government has become so evil and cruel perhaps to make us all cling to God and to one another. We made a mistake in making our government God and we will have to choose to get set free — free of self, for our warfare is not flesh and blood but powers and principalities in high places.

With the understanding of our Heavenly Father, let us reach out with a helping hand to those caught in the gates of hell. See you at the pearly gates as we all choose to find our place in God's heart where our Savior already abides.
