To all you dear prisoners of hope,

When our deeds and words kiss one another it makes for the character that not only has the fruit of the Spirit, but that loyalty that sticks with the stuff until the bitter end. My life was quite serene until God came into it. He beat me, He rejected me, He betrayed me and yet, my love for Him far surpassed all He did as He chastised me to prepare me for a vessel of honor. And of course after all of that, He sliced my heart and I never recovered. Now, out of that sliced heart flows a river of love and life for you and all like yourself who love the truth and the severe dealings of God. I admire you and have a deep respect for you, not only as the male species, which we females should honor just for that alone, but for your singleness, centered on your love for me, for I am the carrot ahead of your nose that has a sweet fragrance ever tempting you to keep following that scent until you are one with me and with God. Ah, now that is a marriage we all should long for.

What do you think of these scriptures? Have I told you about the flying saucer invasion that could be at hand as Satan is revealed?

Joel 3:13 – “Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, get you down for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision.”

“Proclaim ye this among the nations. Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up. Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.”

“And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams and your young men shall see visions. And the sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered.”
