

With God I Know I've Won

*In the morning I arise,
Content and filled with peace;
God's promises I know are true,
My cares just seem to cease!*

*Each day I feel such passion,
That makes this weak heart whole,
Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ,
Consumes my burning soul!*

*As I learn to trust in Him,
With stronger faith each day,
His Holy Spirit teaches me,
Of what I need to pray.*

*On my knees I then submit,
My life and every thing,
To God, Creator of the Earth,
My Abba Father, King!*

*I ask to give me wisdom,
That I may know the way,
To walk along the path of Christ,
And hear His voice each day!*

*There is nothing He can't do,
|Nor anything to fear,
I'm resting in His arms of love,
He longs to hold me near!*

*Awesome and so great is He,
To give His only Son,
So I may have eternal life,
With God I know I've won!*
