

Art Expressions

A warm welcome to fiber artist Linda Illumanardi, born and raised in the mountains of Vermont where she learned the names of local weeds, flowers, and trees. Now in California, she gently gathers leaves from trees that become the content and design of her books, fabric, and ceramics. Linda began eco-printing on paper, to accompany her handmade book designs. With a master's degree in painting and multitudes of printing classes and residencies, Linda loves to make impressions in each environment that she visits. Please see her lifestyle and work on her public Instagram account @linda.illumanardi.
