

Beaded Treasures

By popular demand...for the fifth straight year, Amy is returning from Washington state and setting up "shop" in our entrance (where she will teach her assortment of beautiful original jewelry and selling her one-of-a-kind bead kits. Amy has shared her passion creating bead patterns and teaching all around the country for the past twenty years, and invites you to please come by and make one of her incredible jewelry projects with her expert help!

A warm welcome to Kat Clark, whose jewelry reflects natural and organic forms and the inspiration she draws from the simple beauty of nature. Her passion for teaching technique, particularly in jewelry artistry "...is all about the material and manipulation of it through the use of tools and one's hands..." Kat gets great pleasure in sharing her knowledge as a jewelry instructor and mentor and inspiring the creative desire in others.
