“Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the ANTICHRIST is coming, even now many antichrists have come, by which we know it is the last hour.” 1 John 2:18

Let us study the above timely scripture. We know it is the last hour because many antichrists have come. That is present tense and plural. Then it says that a singular ANTICHRIST is coming. That is singular and future.

Now we all know that the word christ means the anointing. So this scripture is saying that there are many antichrists here — many false anointings. Then the scripture goes on to say that there is a true anointing, and those who have the true anointing also have the truth. It also says that we all started a race in the late sixties and seventies, and those who are of the antichrist have actually denied the Christ, so have never finished the race back to the Father. The leaders thus far have not led the people back to God because they, like John the Baptist, have only pointed toward Him. “He who comes after me is greater than I” (Matthew 3:11). Well, my dear friends, the one who is to follow John the Baptist is here. He will judge the world in righteousness and truth and we will finally get freed from the bondage of the curse. Because the real is rising so also is the anti-real, and it is up to each of us to discern the difference.

The true anointing is the Holy Spirit and if you have the Holy Spirit in you, you have the Son of God, Jesus Christ. For the Holy Spirit always bears witness of Jesus Christ, the one true God’s son. The Holy Spirit is in the world for the people to receive as a gift. This precious gift was not given to people to use for healing, for starting a church, for casting out demons, etc. It was sent into the world so we could receive Him and let Him lead us into all truth and lead us back home to our Father. Any revival going on right now is of the antichrist. He says He will come and revive the spirit of the humble and the heart of the contrite. America is a far cry from being humble or contrite. We need a deep repentance and death to our old nature before God will revive. God’s corrective judgments will prepare us for revival.

The next move of God will come dividing husband against wife, children against parents, etc. I know you all know your scripture well enough to know this. He divides us off to Himself so He can judge us and bring us individually into His righteousness and peace and joy. The next move of God will expose the motives of the heart, open the eyes of the blind, and destroy the world of Christendom with severe judgment. The next move of God will see God judging individuals, families, cities, nations. I am writing this so you will not be carried away by every wind of doctrine. You all know also that He divides so He can multiply; He tears so He can heal; He plants so He can reap — so be of good cheer. We are getting our prayers answered that we have prayed for two thousand years... That His will be done. Our will being replaced by His will. Our reasoning being replaced by His reasoning. “Come let us reason together. Where your sins were like scarlet they will be as white as snow.” (Isaiah 1:18) If we love God with all our hearts, our world has been crucified so we live in His world. Do the things of the world (be it the church world or the world where we work and play) still attract you, or is the glory of the Kingdom of God your meat, your drink, your all???

The so-called church and state which profess to be separate, in reality are married, and we shall see a big power struggle between the two. Beware of the Christian Coalition wanting to rule. These are men who profess to know Christ but are impostors. Christ himself will be our next ruler and every knee will bow to His authority. Be sure you are in the world and not of it as God’s kingdom is not of this world. We see the heavens now being shaken but the big toppling is yet to come. Be not dismayed at the deceit in high places. As the “powers that be” wipe out the little man they are actually toppling their own kingdom. They are just too ignorant to know that without us they are nothing. God is the Master of it all. Those who have lost loved ones and homes, and life is more than one can cope with — turn to Him with all your heart. Seek out the people to fellowship with who are following the star. He will be visiting us with healing in His wings. But first we shall see the imposter church show her true colors as she attempts to wipe out the true Christ (anointing). Pray you are not part of her in any way, shape or form, for God’s judgments are righteous. We have seen God beginning to judge those who have brought us (the Piecemakers) pain and hardship. He says we shall see the reward of the wicked. So my little children, let us be blameless and harmless children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom we shine as lights in the world (Philippians 2:15).

Now I could name or describe some of the antichrists that have risen, but let it suffice to just say that anything that smacks at all of the charismatic move is not of God. Let those who have ears let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the church. God bless you, and may His peace be with you all during this season of His birth; and also with you as we enter a most turbulent year of change and disruption as He comes to destroy all that is not of Him so He can become Lord. Also expect His grace to be sufficient and abundantly supplied, for where sin abounds, there grace shall also be poured out to steady and comfort us. His grace and peace be with you all.

January — March 1996 Letter

Dearest friends,

Warmest greetings to all of you, especially those who have been afflicted by God and life will just never be the same again. He says He will satisfy the afflicted soul and afflict the satisfied souls. He does this so we can all be reduced to ashes and have a common denominator — our lowly, meek and gentle Lord.

How can we convey to you in words the deep gratitude we have for all of you — your continuing to stand firm with us in truth and justice, and your love for freedom and all else Piecemakers stands for? We know the flack many of you have taken from those yet in darkness. We feel like all of you are a wall of fire around us, protecting us from many of the fiery darts sent our way.

Also, we would like to thank the thousands of people who attend our craft fairs. You're helping to keep our vendors, the grass roots businesses of America in business. We will continue to serve all of you to the utmost of our ability. Your patience with our parking problem, your generous spending, your cheerful attitude, all help create an atmosphere that blesses those who attend the fair.

We expect God to make Himself easy to find in 1996, so let us all make Him our refuge as all kingdoms begin to topple and give way to His Kingdom.

What's happening at Piecemakers??? Well, there is something old and something new happening — the new that we hope, Lord willing, to continue next year not only as a service, but also because of the atmosphere it creates. That is our Pumpkin Patch Farm in September and October, and also our Christmas Tree Farm in December. I know all of you enjoyed just sitting and basking in the atmosphere while sipping your cappuccino or tea.

Besides our Craft Fairs taking place the same time year after year, we are adding a Food Festival that will take place every May, and the Spring Fashion Show that will also take place in May. The new event that is proving to be as fun and exciting as the Craft Festivals is our Peddler's Market. It is still small but growing. Rent a booth space for $10.00 and bring your old rummage or your precious treasures that you have replaced with other precious treasures. This is another way of bringing the community together. Check the year-long Calendar of Events for other happenings.

Once again we have our dear faithful teachers, elinor and Gloria, coming in January. Joellyn Jevons is coming also January 20th demonstrating quilting and more.

There is nothing nicer than being greeted at the door with a slice of bread from the Great Harvest Bread Company and the friendly faces of Judy and Kathy or any other Piecemakers, male or female, welcoming you to the store.

I pray that 1996 be a year of new beginnings for some of you who have been walking through the dark tunnel. Thank God, Jesus prefaced many things by saying, "And it came to pass." The hurts and troubles do end and usually there is a fresh beginning — and we are a little wiser, a little more understanding than before our time of trouble.

God bless all of you this Christmas and throughout the year of 1996.

Marie
