

January — March 2002 Word

WHO IS ON THE LORD'S SIDE???

Here are some truths which are true only to those who have experienced them. They should be reality to all who call themselves Christian.

"I have nothing therefore I have all things." 2 Corinthians 6:10

"I die and behold I live." 2 Corinthians 6:9

"The Lord chastises those He loves." Hebrews 12:6

(Notice He does not bless those He loves.)

Recently a wind blew through Costa Mesa shaking every tree until only that remained that was beneficial to the tree. Trees that were not rooted were blown over. This fierce wind tore our flag right up the middle — an impossible feat without the hand of God.

Now what lessons do we learn from the twin towers falling, the fierce winds blowing, the flag ripping up the middle? Considering that God is the cause of all action we are certainly a heathen country if we do not see behind the scenes of our circumstances. For we do not look to the seen, but to the unseen. (2 Corinthians 4:18) The Lord spoke this lesson to me as if He were standing and talking face to face with me. "The flag is divided just the way our country is divided." We are not divided necessarily by race, religion, or miles apart but He is saying, "Who is on the Lord's side?" (Exodus 32:20) Now notice He said, "Who is on the Lord's side", not, "The Lord is on my side blessing my little churchy thing I am doing". Remember the Civil War. The religious south thought the Lord was surely on their side. They thought they could do their little Christian duty and say all the right things. But their deeds were evil. Their iniquity separated them from God — the same condition America is in today. Who would ever think God could be on bin Laden's side??? God is sick of our works. He is sick to death of churchianity. He is bypassing the Christians as He bypassed the Jews 2000 years ago because they did not recognize God through His son Jesus Christ. And He is really pissed off at our making our government God and looking to it for our security.

So He is here once again in the flesh and the Christians are the ones who are missing His visitation. They are, for the most part, robots repeating what some false teacher has taught them. Please prove me wrong in what I say. All teachers, prophets and pastors are of an age that has passed away. Because the cross is the only doorway to God, to His Kingdom, to Heaven — the false apostles, teachers and pastors have come up with a multitude of ear tickling doctrines that keep the people bound in death.

So if you are on the Lord's side you will see through all of the pleading for money, their programs that "need your help", the do gooder Christian who is no more than a shadow of our corrupt government. Once you see it, it is your responsibility to "come out from among them and be ye separate so I can be your God." (2 Corinthians 6:17)

When I saw the unbelievable debris that had fallen from the trees (the wind being a type of the Holy Spirit), the Lord said this, "I will shake once more the heavens and the earth so that which cannot be shaken will remain." (Hebrews 12:26-27) In the sixties God shook the earth and we have never been the same. Now He will shake the heavens also. That is where all rulership originates; from the heads of government, the heads of churches, the heads of families even to our own rulership of our lives. What or who is ruling your life? If you do not see through our government, you are as deceived as the Germans were at the time of the Hitler regime. All the monkeys live in the heavens. Expect our government to fall, expect your church to turn to ashes, expect your life to be invaded by God in a way unforeseen or unheard of except at the fall of Adam and Eve, who gave us the wrong head to begin with.

Every family is dysfunctional. Our great evangelists preach the “come to Jesus” sermon and then act like the family is okay just because the members “received” a Jesus. If they had received the real Christ, that would be the end of that dysfunctional family, as our biggest enemies should be of our own household. (Matthew 10:36) He is the beginning of our journey back to our Father in whom we find our freedom. Contrary to the old saying “Freedom is another word for nothing else to lose”, freedom is, in fact, finding the place in Father’s heart that Jesus has prepared for each individual. At least that is what the Bible says and that is the walk of every true believer. We must give up all to get anything back. All must be destroyed before restored. Do you get it? Or are you yet so blind you do not see?

Behold, the great Judge standeth at the door and contrary to the false teachers’ gospel, all must be judged, not just the “bad” guys. We all are the same animal born in sin, living in hell and death, and our freedom will come according to how we respond to the judgments of Almighty God.

See you at the judgment seat of Christ.

Marie

Marie Kolasinski

January — March 2002 Letter

Hi dear folks,

If you are going through hell where there seems no answer, rhyme or reason, let me reassure you that God does love those He chastises, and things concerning judgment and correction and change do have an end. In the beginning was God and He is determined that each and every one of us has a new beginning with Him as Lord, Father, Wonderful Counselor full of mercy and understanding. How can we understand one another unless we walk in the same path our Lord walked, experiencing the heartache, the rejection, the loneliness, the fear, the misunderstanding of those near and dear???. My dear fellow sojourner we learn from suffering, not from the good times. America is only as humble as each individual is humble, so expect His judgments to touch your life to straighten out the crooked places, bring down the mountains of pride, arrogance, self-righteousness and bring up the valleys of self-pity, pouting, holding grudges, etc.

2002 should be a memorable year: more so than the towers falling for this is the time when we can once more make a choice as did Adam and Eve, our original parents. The door is open to the Tree of Life. Who is on the Lord's side is the big question written across the heavens for each of us to choose — His will or ours, our life or His, our natural family or His family. We do, indeed, make choices that lead to Life or keep us in death. God's love is a chastening rod. Let us all bend our stiff necks and receive His correction.

Let me close with a portion of Martin Luther King's speech. "The church must be reminded once again that it is not to be the master or the servant of the state, but the conscience of the state. It must be the guide and the critic of the state, not its tool. As long as the church is a tool of the state it will be unable to provide even a modicum of bread for men at midnight."

If you are one who makes up a church that is not preaching a pure gospel it is your duty to "come out of the unclean thing so God can be your Father". If we all make it our duty to make a brave stand for freedom from tyranny of any kind, we just may see the fruit of what our forefathers shed their blood for and see America the "great land of liberty".

Marie