AMERICA'S HEALING

America is ripe for a tremendous resurgence back to our roots, back to a new beginning, back to the God who created us, back to Him who can make us whole and heal our wounded hearts. For He comes to heal the broken hearted — by judgments, by making crooked places straight, by bringing down mountains of pride and bringing up valleys of self-pity.

"Come and let us return unto the Lord; for he hath torn and he will heal us; he hath smitten and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know that his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth; if we follow on to know the Lord."

Hosea 6:1–3

Oh, how we all hate to suffer. However, the only way into the next age (to know the Lord), the new world — heaven, if you will, is by suffering. The door we must go through is the cross. It is at the cross where we will be healed. We may allow other religions in this country but ultimately we will all have to bow our knee to the true God, the Father of Jesus Christ if we want to enter into the next age, called eternity. Do you know that the seed for heaven is right inside of you?? Do you know that only through Jesus Christ will that seed mature into the new man who can receive the kingdom of God? People may profess to know our Father, but not unless they have had a complete metamorphosis can they become one with Him, and to know Him is to be one with Him. And my friend, that comes with much suffering. Whoever thought that spiritual suffering could be as painful as the worst kind of cancer??

Do you know why He has torn us? He tears us like a physician tears open a cancer infested body. Americans are being torn. We are being torn by betrayals, by government intrusion into our lives, by sickness and death, by rejection — one birth pang after another. Did not our Savior warn us of times such as these??? Jesus says these will be times such as never before in the history of man. He cannot heal us unless we are first torn.

Someone whole does not need a physician even if his wholeness is all wrong. He is healing us by a complete metamorphosis—the making of a completely new man. Do you see why all relationships must be severed?

Now, as never before, God is with us. Our hurts are caused by Him. Our lack of communication with our loved ones is caused by Him; our circumstances are given to us as an incubator in which to grow. Dear friends, turn to Him and then do not write the script for Him to keep, but be pliable and humble in His hands as He forms you into a new creation, a new society — not a one-world government, but into the kingdom of God on earth.

Now, how does He come?? He comes as the "Son of Righteousness" with healing in His wings. Because He is righteous, all the unrighteousness that we have embraced which has caused our spiritual demise, will be exposed and cut out of us like a good physician cutting out a cancer. The longer we hold onto our old life the more our chances of making it into the next age (world) diminish. Thus, our tearing is to remove all pride, pity, arrogance, resentment, and all else that would keep us bound.

The Son of Righteousness is rising in our very being and he is filled with rage — rage at all deceit and unrighteousness — rage, in fact, at the grave in which He has been buried since the beginning of time. Insight magazine states that "more people feel anxious and without hope and that is a formula for rage." Our spirit is raging, for it is like a volcano coming out of our earth. In the Bible this is called the resurrection. Only after America as a whole comes into the new age, the resurrection, will the rage cease. Expect a growing amount of rage as common sense and a conscience are being born in the human race.

Insight also stated a "sign of the times". "But people still want God. A huge number of people are circling the edges of church. They are fed up with the institution, but they don't want to give up on God." Sad to say it also stated that these people thought Jesus Christ was in the institution, so this leaves them in a quandary.

The big judge, God Himself, is about to judge the church (the big imposter who is the creator of our leviathan government). Beware of all pastors, teachers, prophets, evangelists who are trying to keep you in the "church age". The kingdom of God is here and people are entering therein. All charismatic leaders have turned into wolves in sheeps' clothing. Both the government and the church are whores (according to scripture) who have deceived the people.

Now is the time to form a community of believers. Now is the time to forebear with one another as we bear the reproach of Christ and begin our journey from a worm into a butterfly — all of our glory turning into filthy rags — all of our charisma turning into (as Paul called it) a pile of dung. For out of the ashes of a dung heap comes a beautiful new creation with kindness, mercy, love and compassion one for another — a new society on this old earth of ours. One world coming to an end and another being birthed.

How many of you know that we want beauty without the ashes? We want restoration without being torn down. We want healing without first being torn. We want freedom without paying a price. We want peace of mind without the metamorphosis.

By the way, did you know that the world comes to an end every two thousand years when the sun enters a new zodiac?? We are leaving the Pisces zodiac and entering the age of Aquarius. After much hurt, much crying and pain — like the agony experienced by our forefathers, God will once more be the Father of our country with Satan's government put underfoot. God bless you all — see you in the new world.

July — September 2002 Letter

Hello Folks — Instead of Marie writing a letter this quarter we are reprinting her speech given at Piecemakers flag raising ceremony. Video available for $10.00 plus shipping.

Speech Given at the "Changing of the Guard" Ceremony at Piecemakers May 28, 2002

Almighty God — Creator of heaven and earth — has a plan for America. The country we are living in today is not the fulfillment of God's plan for our nation. Our country was conceived in liberty. Our forefathers made sure that the seeds planted were seeds of freedom — freedom from one person ruling over another — brothers and sisters with one common Heavenly Father.

However, while God was planting seeds of freedom, the enemy of our country was also planting seeds of evil. Today, in this year of 2002, the seeds are all bearing fruit.

We, as individuals and as a nation, are about to enter a very dark and bewildering night season when the evil in our country will be removed by the convicting fire of a Holy God. We have written and spoken many great and noble words; like the words written in the Scriptures, like our Bill of Rights, like the words written on the Statue of Liberty — empty words with no substance.

We are about to see these protective words become the living fiber of our nation.

We are about to see our government collapse and see God claim that which He fathered years ago.

We are about to see the brotherhood of man, each one speaking truth one to another, and communities once more becoming the heartbeat of America.

We are about to see the laboring force of America honored and able to keep the fruits of their labor, instead of giving it to the tares which have sprung up with the noble seed planted by our forefathers.

We are about to see these beautiful words come to pass: "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest tost to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door." We should welcome everyone who is brave enough to leave their homeland and honor us by coming to live and work in a better place.

Yes, all of this is in the heart of our Father and He will bring it to pass, but not without much cleansing, suffering and tremendous change in the hearts of all of us.

Today will go down in history as surely as the day our forefathers signed the Declaration of Independence, for today we are declaring our independence from a tyrannical government and our total dependence upon a merciful God.

The song, "America the Beautiful" just sung by the Piecemakers Country Singers describes the people who forged the fabric of our country called America — pilgrims who had the vision of all being crowned with brotherhood, and were brave and courageous enough to live what they believed.

We are gathered here today because we want our country back.

We want our country freed from the greedy grasp of bureaucrats who have bound the citizens of our country with so many laws, we have all become criminals.

We want our country back from a judicial system gone mad — from the gestapo tactics used to enforce laws made up by unscrupulous people.

We want to see common sense be the dictator of our laws.

We want our country back from the cesspool of immorality so filthy we make Sodom and Gomorrah seem naive.

We want our country back under God with people who have a godly fear of the Father who founded our country.

In protest to the hypocrisy of flying a flag that stands for a country that does not exist we are putting our beloved flag to rest until such time as we see a change in the hearts of the American people which will in turn be a change in our government.

We know that a flag is an emblem that carries a message that describes the country over which it flies. Like the swastika stood for a dictatorial government, and we all knew it when we saw it. The American flag stands for mercy, justice, liberty, righteousness and a benevolent God, which surely does not exist in our government today.

Let us separate America, our nation, from the rotten tree we have fostered called democracy. Better we rid ourselves of hypocrisy by putting up a flag that better describes who we are today as a nation. A hypocrite is one who feigns to be what one is not. As we lower our flag today let us not lose hope as we all go through the demise of democracy, for out of the ashes God will unfurl his plan for our country — a new America — bright, shining, filled with liberty and justice for all.
