JESUS CHRIST — THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY AND FOREVER (Hebrews 13:8)

Someone approached me recently and made what she thought was a rather awesome statement. She said, “In Communist China, if you receive Christ, you lose your job, your home, your family, your friends, your reputation and your very existence.” I said, “That’s very interesting, but what makes the people of Communist China different from the American people? If you truly meet Christ here, the same thing happens.”

Well, needless to say, she was rather taken aback. Jesus Christ is the same in every country at any time. He is the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13:8). He is willing to come into the life of a degenerate animal called man and change him into a new creation. He does not come into your life to make you a better Catholic or a better Mormon or a better Protestant or Jew. He comes to annihilate that old life and create a new life. There is nothing in our old life that can please God except our willingness to give it up, like a seed that is willing to be totally destroyed to become the oak tree.

Recently there was an article in U.S. News describing the life of the early Christians — about how the disciples were willing to forsake all, and out of their dedication to Christ, a new world was formed. Then it tells about the perverts who tried to fit Christ into Judaism just like the Christians today try to fit Christ into their religion.

Why does some seed bring forth fruit unto the resurrection while others pervert the gospel and are always waiting to go to heaven, waiting to be whole, waiting for the second coming, or waiting for their Messiah — always learning, but never coming into the knowledge of perfection? (2 Timothy 3:7) Jesus said, “Seek ye first the Kingdom of God.” Also, “If you seek, you shall find.” (Matthew 7:7) That infers that the Kingdom (heaven) is right here for us to find.

What has happened that the church has never come to fruition? We know the leaders have stopped short of the glory of God and somehow have corralled millions of sheep to listen and believe a stupid gospel that changes no one, a gospel that leaves them deaf, dumb and blind.

I sit in amazement when I happen to flick on the “TV gospels”; amazed that people follow such garbage. Then consider the thousands that every Sunday throng to a church that Christ has never entered, or if He dared go in for a season, He soon left because the leaders pervert the word and give no vision to the people. These leaders keep the people all corralled under them instead of leading them to God.

The judge is at the door ready to judge the foolish shepherds who have fleeced the flock. But my dear readers, you are also accountable for your spirit. You can read your Bible and seek God on your own. If you do seek Him with all your heart, your eyes will begin to open, and you’ll find out you are sitting under someone who has not entered into the Kingdom himself and keeps everyone under him/her out. We are talking about life eternal and death eternal. If you do not find eternal life now, do not expect to find it after your physical death.

Please ponder these things:

1. When God calls someone, why does he or she go to Bible school or seminary? Why, like Paul, Moses and every other example, aren’t they taught by God? Every Bible school is of man and not God. You should know that without my telling you.
2. If the “Christian church” is the true Body of Christ, why are we not all of one mind as the Body should be? Why are there so many different “ways into heaven?”

3. If the cross is the centrality of our faith, why do we have in the pulpit the enemies of the cross who titillate the flesh of the people?

4. Why is there the whoredom in the church with no reprover, no plumbline, everyone looking the other way as sin runs rampant?

5. Where are the prophets that cry day and night because of the corruption of the people? Where is the reprover at the gate?

There is pride in the size of the congregations we attend. There is pride in the wealth of the church we attend. The multitudes do not like to listen to a convicting gospel that demands change. The multitudes run with the throng to hear a gospel that tickles the ears.

There are small groups all over America not caring about size or wealth. These small groups are sold out body, soul and spirit to God. They will probably never increase in size, however, their light shines throughout the world. These are the ones that will preserve our corrupted world. These are the ones the multitudes hate because their light exposes the corruption and deception in the hearts of men. These are the ones who will save the earth. (2 Chronicles 7:14)

Are you willing to come out of the unclean thing so God can be your Father? Or will you sleepwalk every Sunday to the church of your choice, blindly going on to destruction? The path to destruction is wide, and narrow is the path that leads to LIFE. (Matthew 7:13,14)

Once again the Spirit is warning us to awaken. Is your loyalty to a church or to your family or America or the flag or to your job? If it is to anything or anyone but God, you are blind, dumb and deceived. Is your focus on your family or on your job or on your ministry or on some cause or on your own welfare? For the love of God, come out of your stupor. America is headed for a devastation that will make the famine of Africa and the destruction of Afghanistan seem like ‘kids’ stuff’.

You have been warned. The blood is on your hands. Are you prepared to meet Him? The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. He is at the door. Are you ready to meet a Holy God?

July — September 1992 Letter

Dearest Friends,

You know how I feel about this time spent chatting with you every three months. To me it is a great privilege. Tonight as I write this, my heart is very troubled. Because this affects all of you as much as it affects me; let me share with you what I feel is a cancer that is eating away your freedom and my freedom — a cancer in our government that has become such a growth, I fear it is too late to do something to stop it short of a full revolution. I fear for the people of America. I fear that all we have held dear to us — our Constitutional rights — our freedom to run our businesses as we feel fit — our freedom to live without the tyranny of our government entering into places where they have no business — are these freedoms slipping from us like sand sifting through our fingers?

I've said all that to say this. Our tea room has been closed for over a year — not because of uncleanness or unsanitary conditions, but because we won't put a wall where the Health Department wants one. We happen to have a brick floor in our tea room. They object to one color brick because it is too dark. Our refrigerator is undersize although we use it only for our drinks. Our candy counter needs three sinks behind it that will take up more room than the candy counter. They say it is to wash and rinse our utensils — which are two cup-size scoops. I could go on and on about their unreasonable Gestapo tactics used to close down the life blood of America — the small businesses. I call this murder — anytime someone takes away your right to make a living and your incentive to work, they take away your life.

We have around 2500 names of people who are ready to march on the Health Department — who are fed up with our paying our taxes for their salaries when we really are paying them to put us to death.

Now we have lost much money with our Tea Room closed. We have spent around $50,000 on fruitless counseling. If we were to obey and change our store according to the whims of the Orange County Health Department, we would have to spend another $150,000. Because the bureaucrats spend our money with an “easy come, easy go” attitude and because most of them don't know what a day's work is, they care not that we, the working class, work 12 hours a day to keep them in their splendid life style. They care not that most small businesses do not have the money to carry out their “highfalutin” ideas.

Where is the government of the people, by the people and for the people? Since when did our government think it should wield its power over us when in fact our government should serve and nurture the businesses — the life blood of a society.*

If ever the people get the government back on their shoulders where it belongs, the people would judge whether or not a restaurant or tea room was clean. If the service is bad or unsanitary, we don't need the government to “straighten us out”. People just won't patronize a dirty place. No “permit” on a wall will guarantee a clean place. No sink put in will guarantee the people wash their hands.

Let us all seek the Lord and pray He destroys our government in the same way Pharaoh was swallowed up in the Red Sea as the children of Israel found their way to freedom. Let us pray our hearts all learn to serve one another and care for one another's welfare. Are the Los Angeles riots a beginning of a revolution or will America humble ourselves and God intervene?*

If you have been abused or maligned by any facet of our government, will you write to me here at Piecemakers, 1720 Adams Ave., Costa Mesa, CA 92626. Thank you for listening and may God be with all of us as we too march toward the Promised Land.
