

Words of Life

Piecemakers Country Store
1720 Adams Avenue
Costa Mesa, CA 92626
(714) 641-3112
mail@piecemakers.com

October — December 2004 Word

“The leech has two daughters, crying Give, Give.” Proverbs 30:15

The church and the government are two leeches. They take and take from the people and give nothing in return. We have ignorantly entrusted our life and our soul to these leeches who are false gods.

The salaries of our government employees are exorbitant. They somehow have the idea they are our boss. Therefore they make up all the rules by which we should live. And we robots go about two-stepping to the beat of their drum. We go to the poles and vote in yet another one who will put a noose around our necks.

America is in such a precarious predicament — like a bubble ready to burst. Unless God intervenes we will shortly be worse off than any third world country. The following is one of many examples of “What is wrong with this picture?”

Fairview Park is an open undeveloped area, rare, indeed in Orange County. It is a perfect place for the kids to play — a natural skateboard ramp, hills to slide on, etc. A few city officials, who evidently have too much of our money, have decided to make a “look, but do not touch” park out of it. The threatening signs have scared everyone out of it except the big shot city officials who ride around in vehicles paid for with our money. When I stopped one last night and told him he was breaking his own law, as the sign stated “No Motorized Vehicles Allowed”, he had the nerve to tell me that only city vehicles were allowed.

Folks, we are the city. They are our employees. They should live by the laws we make. They should not have a job unless we hire them. They should not get a raise unless we give it to them. They should not steal money from us, the employer.

How did all of the system get turned around to make the servant the ruler and the employer the slave?????

The other leech, more subtle, is the church. Every church building you see is a monument to a movement of God that happened and is now over. Yet, the so-called pastors and priests continue to preach a gospel that keeps the people in hell — learning but never coming into the reality of the truth. And robots, too lazy to think for ourselves, continue to let the leeches bleed us to death, both spiritually and physically.

There is no one so blind as he who will not see.

I believe we have gone past the point of no return. When the bubble bursts no one can say we have not been warned. It will take a good jolt of some kind to shake us from our lethargy. Am I an alarmist? Perhaps, but I would rather be called a realist. Lord willing, see you next time.

Marie

Marie Kolasinski

I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day

*I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day
Their old familiar carols play
And wild and sweet, the words repeat
Of "Peace on earth, good will to men."
I thought as now the day had come
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rung so long the unbroken song
Of "Peace on earth, good will to men."*

*And in despair, I bowed my head
There is no peace on earth, I said
For hate is strong and mocks the song
Of "Peace on earth, good will to men"
Then pealed the bells more loud and deep
"God is not dead, nor doth He sleep"
The wrong shall fail, our Lord prevail
With peace on earth, good will to men.*

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

October — December 2004 Letter

My dear Friends,

The above poem written years ago is the same message for today: God caring for a world filled with hate and greed; war, storms, earthquakes, awakening all of us to the fact that life is temporary and our only hope is beyond what we perceive as life. God will prevail with peace in our hearts if we continue in that faith that is the substance of things not seen.

Let us not give up when prayers seem unanswered; for life is more than unanswered prayers. Let us not be concerned about what we eat or the ailments of our body; for life is more than our body. Let us not be concerned about who will be president for our ailment is not with man but with God. As God shakes the heavens and the earth — let go of all in your life that you cling to as comfort so He can comfort you.

One more scripture, "The body is not made for fornication but for the Lord" (1 Corinthians 6:13). Why do we "fall in lust", marry, divorce and marry again, expecting the pleasures of sin will satisfy? Let us not be stupid — let us grow up and become that for which God created us.

Peace and Grace to all of you. Continue to rejoice when life as we know it is ending.

Marie