

Life As We Knew It

Children, do you want your freedom??? It takes brave people to make for a free nation. Most people would rather stay in hell complaining, whining and taking drugs than humble oneself, submit one's will to God and let Him cleanse our wicked hearts.

The only real entities in our universe are God and all who will leave our nets of pretend and let Him change us into real blameless, innocent people called humans.

Life as we knew or know it is over, like the worm in its cocoon's days come to an end. It is this drastic transformation that is taking place that is disrupting all of our lives. America, as we know it is history. It will go down as a two-headed monster, benevolent on one hand, and power hungry and a murderer on the other hand - pretending to be a servant, but obsessed with ruling over the ones who pay their salaries.

Now, the world is made up of many different animals. The one misnomered is the one we call human. It is perhaps the most discontent, evil creature that inhabits this earth and is anything but human.

What is known as our evil day is about to end as God makes His appearance and we fall into the hands of the living God or perish.

When the stars in the heavens begin to fall, know that He is shaking not only the earth but also the heavens, and the end is nigh.

Because the kingdom of God is within us, there are stars that have ruled over our old nature as a beast, our tongue being the big ruler that starts on fire the pits of hell - the lust of the eye being another ruler or star, the striving to attain, the love of money and on and on. These all were needed in the night season but are needed no longer. So we have a personal transformation going on inside of us where the light of the Son is making the stars lose their light.

However, the scary one is the pulling down of strongholds that are going on in the world in which we have made our home. Like the money market, Washington D. C., the greed, the lust, marriages and family - all stars that guided us during the night season and are now needed no longer.

Now to get to the point I started out to ask you. How did you spend the last 40 years??? Did you yield your life to the impending doom and repent, and humble yourself under the mighty hand of God??? Or did you love the world and make your nest in that which is no more???

The food that fed us during our time as a beast is dried up. The stars that guided us no more cast their light. All shadows are passing away exposing all of us. Are you being found naked or have you donned the white robes of the righteousness of God? I'm just asking. As usual, how we cope with the drastic changes taking place will depend on how we relate to our Father who is more than joyful to give us the kingdom where our joy unspeakable, peace that passes understanding and a good, calm conscience are as normal as our wicked hearts were in our days as a beast, an odd ball in the world.

So as a good faithful messenger, I would suggest you lay down your sword, stop resisting the Holy Ghost and just swim the fucking river into your freedom.

And empty that wicked heart of yours full of family, desires, arrogance and such and open wide the door for the Master of the universe to come in and make His abode.
