

THE FAMINE

The End of the Old and Behold, All Things Are New

Amos 8:11 — “Behold the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord.”

Amos 8:12 — “And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord and shall not find it.”

These two scriptures are being fulfilled even as I write for the human race is about to experience the likes of which has never been experienced. We are like a chick ready to be hatched. The Lord will send a famine, or shall I say, the famine is normal, as the food has created what it was meant to create.

The seeking for food will cause much upheaval as the eggshell or the boundaries of the old age begin to crack and crumble. The book of Amos tells of the fear that will cause people to do things which are quite normal when caught with having to face the holiness of the light of life outside the confines of the dark egg shell----leaving the known and adjusting one's life to a new environment with all motives and evil intents exposed and done away with. No more pretending, no more manipulating, no more greed, no more striving to prove oneself. Just a newborn chick doing what finally becomes natural.

The scary story in Amos describing our anguish and tribulation as we enter the kingdom of God, ends with an encouraging promise.

Amos 9:13 — “Behold the days come that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. And I will plant them upon their land and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them.”
