

Reformation

Hebrews 9:10 — “All of these ordinances were imposed on them until the time of the reformation.”

Strong’s Concordance says the word reformation means “to straighten thoroughly; messianic restoration” —

Webster’s Dictionary says, “the act of reforming; correction or amendment of life, manners, or of any thing vicious or corrupt — reformation of the age — the act of forming anew — the change of religion from the corruptions of papery to its primitive purity.”

Only in the book of Hebrews is the word reformation used. This is the culmination of the reformation started at the time of Luther. What is happening will make the last dispensation called “the church age” part of history, only a remembrance. At the beginning of the church dispensation, everyone who became a Christian had to pass through the blood of Christ and change. A tremendous change, as all their identity as a Jew or whatever religion had to give way to the new age. The reformation was painful and they learned obedience to the new age by suffering.

And so it is today. The old dispensation is passing away and we are caught in the throes of having to reform or be cast away as a bad seed.

The new age called “the Kingdom of God” is the culmination of God forming man in His image. And we all know, we, the clay will not make God in our image as we have been trying to do, lo, these many years.

All of the rules and regulations held us until now but did not reconcile us back to God thus wiping away our sins and our iniquities.

Now is the time God is calling us back home. However, we must be reformed. The book of Hebrews explains the process perfectly. The church has not entered the new testament as yet. We must be born anew to enter into the precepts of the new testament. Another word for testament is “will”. You can only abide in the new testament when you have given up your will and received the will of God. Meeting Christ is not the answer. He is the truth and the way back to God, our Father. God, Himself is here checking the vineyard. It is the hour when He says, “The harlots and tax collectors will enter in before the professing Christians.” I find it interesting Jesus put the tax collectors in the same category with the harlots. I find that quite an offense to the harlot.

Anyone professing to meet Christ now has met a false Christ for that is not what the Holy Spirit of God is doing today. The Holy Spirit, the blood of Christ is the cross we all must go through. It is the flaming sword that forces us to change to enter in. Many people are going through excruciating trials and deep suffering in this land of plenty in which we live.

My dear friends, do you realize what coming out of the old, dead world and coming into the new age (world) entails? We become a new entity as we shed our blood and get the blood of the new age, Christ’s blood; for there is no forgiveness of sin without the shedding of blood. Perhaps a wife is called before her husband. That means that even though we all speak English, the fellowship of communing with one another is gone. The speech of the old age is as different as the dispersion of the one speech at the destruction of the Tower of Babel. Each had an entirely different language. Because the blood is in the flesh, the marriage which has united a couple in the flesh is gone. That means suffering. We all will learn obedience and humility by the things that we suffer.

Coming into the new age by the blood of Christ, the fire of God, purges our conscience from dead works. All the church has known thus far has been dead works performed by dead people. The resurrection is at hand to bring forth new living works that will glorify God.

Recently we had a member of Piecemakers who was with us for thirty years, partaking of the healing of her marriage, her mind, her family. Christ so graciously moved upon this woman whose life was in shambles. Then the time came for her to enter into the new age through the veil of the flesh thus losing her relationships, her life, and she left us. She loved God for His blessings but refused to get to know Him... The price was too great. If we love our life we will in the end lose it. If we deny Him, He will deny us. I could understand more how Christ must have felt when Judas left him. For the one who left had been in charge of our money. Like Judas, she had been a disciple, like Judas, Christ loved her and like Judas she had a heart that would betray the Lord and all her brothers and sisters.

If Judas had just said good-bye and left, it would have been one thing, but to go to the authorities, to carry all manner of evil stories, to enter a lawsuit against the anointed — the evil is more than one can fathom. That is what our sister did to those of us who are dying so others can live.

The potter's field is as real today as it was 2000 years ago. It is a field where all the vessels are thrown that refuse to come face to face with God and change.

Now, my dear friends is the time of the reformation, now is the time of the final days of man as an animal, now is the time of your complete salvation. Let us pray we become putty in the hands of the Potter and yield to the Holy Ghost and become His will in the earth as it is in heaven.
