

Surrender = Sound Mind, Sanity, Sainthood

Only a fully surrendered life to Christ will free one from the prison of self, of a worrying, tormented mind, of a turbulent life, and will ultimately lead to being what is called a new creation or a saint. Anything, whether it be loved ones, affections, desires, rebellion, our own righteousness, whatever stems from self will keep one from the promise of a sound mind and joy and peace.

We are a rebellious, pill taking, phony society, trying every method of our own choosing to cure that which is incurable. We all are composed of a mind conformed to a sick world and the only cure is to suffer the death of Christ, the death of the old mind conformed to hell, and be ye transformed by the new mind of Christ. (Romans 12:1)

Christ gave us the cure. "Leave your nets (snares) and follow me." Then, if my people will humble themselves, turn from their self-righteous, wicked ways, seek first the kingdom of God, then He will move in your behalf and heal you. We are not saved when we meet Christ. We have then only the power to become the Son of God.

By the way — there are no Catholic saints, no Protestant saints. Any one who is of a religion and being called a saint is a big pious phony, including the Pope. We are born a seed. And as Jesus made it very clear — lest a seed falls into the ground and dies, it cannot bear fruit, it will remain corruptible, it will never go to heaven or have heaven as its abode. It will never know God without going into the earth and dying.

Did it not make you nauseous observing the Vatican fiasco at the Pope's funeral?? Is it not ghoulish to you to see anyone who professes to represent our Saviour dressed in clown suits, white collars and black robes and receiving honor from men?? Truly, the whole world is deceived with the father of lies as their father.

Christ was no different than the other fishermen and carpenters in His dress and manner. Always remember, if you have surrendered your life to Christ, it is not what you do but who you are that people will receive from you the waters of life flowing out of your belly.

We are all born with the blood of a fallen race, a sick mind, an arrogant attitude, with pride as our garment. We are all striving for things that do not satisfy, acting like someone we are not, laughing when we should be crying, addicted to anything from food to traveling, to clubbing, to drugs, to attention of men, religion; you name it, we all have it. And to top it all off we have the remedy right at our fingertips and scorn it and anyone brave enough to bear the reproach of Christ and be changed and born of the will of God into a peaceful world called heaven.

Yes, only a fully submitted, surrendered life to Christ will open the grave of our old life called self.

Ah, sweet surrender, you indeed are bittersweet. Help all of us to know the path of surrender and partake of the fruit we will bear because of you. See you all surrendered ones in the heavens as one of God's guiding stars silently, purposefully doing God's will.

"Let the heavens (the guiding stars) declare your righteousness. The heavens declare the glory of God." Psalm 50:6
