Hope (#2)

What is the hope of every one who professes Christ???? It is not “I hope I go to heaven.” Or “I hope my children get saved,” or “I hope my mortgage gets paid,” or any fleshly wishing. “Christ in us, the hope of glory”. Do you not know that once your flesh has been crucified and Christ liveth in you, you are now free of sin? “All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God.” So now that we understand what our hope is, let me take you one step further.

Our hope is anchored in God behind the veil of our flesh. What a predicament!!!

An anchor keeps pulling us toward itself if we will yield ourselves to it. That means, my dear baffled sojourner, that our path back home to our Father takes us through the veil of our own flesh. This is so traumatic that when the veil of Jesus’ flesh was rent and he gave up the ghost there was a great earthquake. When Isaiah broke through the veil of his flesh, there was a great earthquake, and expect a great earthquake when America breaks through the veil of its filthy flesh. If not physically, then spiritually for the flesh that is now known as America is so corruptible it must give way to the incorruptible.

First the forerunners must come through the veil of their corruptible flesh and then the rest will follow. God has so ordained that the Piecemakers are the forerunners.

We are called to become holy as our Father is holy and that entails a journey through the veil of our own flesh.

We are called as Christians to overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil. Now we all know our will is in our flesh and our blood is in our flesh. Just as the blood of Christ is pure and unseen, so is the blood of our Adam man unseen. However it carries in it the life of Cain who was a murderer. Our blood carries vengeance as the blood of Abel crying from the earth. Our blood is corruptible and we are called to put on the incorruptible. Our blood has memory and unforgiveness.

So I write this beseeching you to sow to the spirit and not the flesh for those in the flesh cannot please God. I beseech you to humble yourself and put to death the works of the flesh. I beseech you to seek the Lord with a whole heart while He yet may be found.; for His judgments are in the earth to do.

So, my dear Christian people who have put on a sweet Christian face and whose heart is filled with iniquity, kiss your ass goodbye for you are about to have to face the fact that until your heart is purified by the Holy Ghost every wicked evil will proceed from your mouth, for out of the issues of your heart the mouth speaketh. Up until now we have put on a sweet Christian facade and God is removing all masks.
