

The Harvest — the End of the World — the Second Coming

Let me take you on a journey to enlighten you as to what is happening to what the world has known as civilization. But closer yet, what is happening in your life. Understanding is like a medicine.

Matthew 24 starts with some interesting dialogue. Jesus had departed from the temple. The temple was the center of the age that was coming to a close at that time. With the Spirit leaving, Jesus then further explains — “There will not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.” Now, seeing that Jesus was sitting right there, I find the next question asked by the disciples quite interesting, “What shall be the sign of your coming and the end of the age???” Wow, that should take the pizzazz out of the yu-rah-rah, Jesus is coming doctrine, considering that His coming means the end of your life.

Considering that the body now is the temple of the Holy Ghost and we are made up of living stones, there will not be one person left as God moves across the world as the harvester... “If you choose to save your life you will lose it; if you lose your life for My sake you will save it.” Looms up before us like a red flag.

Revelation 14:15 — “Thrust in thy sickle and reap; for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. Thrust in thy sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.”

You will notice people are likened to grapes gathered in clusters which are the families. The families are harvested and thrown in the wine press. Now do you understand why families are being torn apart????

The change is so drastic, so mandatory, so unforgiving, that Toeffler in his book Future Shock calls it “the disease of change” and likens it to a cancer. The answer to all of our dilemma is God Himself, here to free us from old habit patterns of thinking, speaking, relating, actually to free us from our old life. The secret — humbling ourselves, admitting our shortcomings, acknowledging God in all things and circumstances. In other words, lose your life to gain His.

Then and only then will you find your freedom — new you, new family, new circumstances, new heavens and a new earth.

Welcome to “Mr. Toad’s wild ride out of hell”.
