

A Word in Season

Did you know the entire Bible was written for all of us??? It is not the Koran or the Catholic missal that guides us back home. It is the word written by the Holy Spirit for each of us to experience. Christianity is a dead religion unless experienced. Now for the jugular vein.

Why do we celebrate Christmas if we have not had the experience of a little baby Jesus in the manger of our hearts making the Son of God very real to us? It is not a mass on the 25th of December. It is the celebration of the Holy Spirit entering our hearts and letting us know that the God of heaven and earth has sent His Son into the world just for each of us.

And why do we celebrate Easter if we do not believe that knowing Him and coming into the resurrection from the dead is for us???? Trust me, it is not an Easter bunny coming out of an egg. We have so blasphemed the Holy Ghost, it seems the desecration is almost beyond repair.

Is it not interesting that Paul did think it not robbery to come into the resurrection. As a matter of fact that was his prayer.
