

“We are planted in corruption and are raised in incorruption.” 1 Corinthians 15

A New Constitution???

If we finally come to our senses and have God ruling we will need no Constitution. We never lived by that piece of paper anyway. Who are we fooling???

Certainly not God.

Man in his arrogance is so predictable. In the old days they were trying to steady the ark as it moved to destroy the corruption in its path and of course the ark prevailed.

Let us just let Humpty Dumpty fall and let God raise up His governments with the working class owning their business — no taxes, no dictators, no greed for power and money.

Is that possible???

Well, it is not only possible, it is inevitable and will happen; for what is impossible with man is possible with God.

How long will we devise a vain thing???? I, for one, am watching and wondering. And as the Good Book says, “God is laughing at our stupidity” as one vain attempt after another fails as we try to stop the so called “leak in the dike”. America will fall like the towers and nobody will stop what God has set in motion. So adios corruption and hail, hail, to our newborn King and a new nation.
