

Email Letters from Marie

Dear Email Friends,

Taking into consideration that other countries are measuring our (saying one thing and doing another) democracy, and finding it quite frightening; I would assume we begin to wonder what Saddam Hussein has done that we haven't. Consider hanging the black people for being black, wiping out Waco for "being different," shooting housewife at Ruby Ridge with no apparent consequence; closing one business after another until our business world has found less hell in other countries; Guantanamo Bay — another Christian Democratic hell — just to name a few of our atrocities.

Only God changing the hearts and minds of the people will make for a more perfect nation.

Perhaps "what is good for the goose is good for the gander" will be world policy if God is a just God.

Sincerely,

Marie Kolasinski
