I hear the scuttlebutt about the “Royal wedding” and I really want to barf. What is wrong with all of us sleeping Americans??

It was enough of a fiasco as we all paid millions for the big bash our so called frugal president spent for his inauguration.

We are all so worship hungry we make icons out of all who are conceited enough to love the “your highness” shit. Our parrot knew more than we Americans. His pesky call was, “get real”. Remember our last icon was princess “whore” Di.

We are to worship God in spirit and in truth. The Bible does not say we are to worship anything or anyone who is here today and gone tomorrow.

If you want whatever her name is to go the same way the idol Di went, just keep worshipping her and really pissing off God to the point of getting rid of her.
