

Letters from Prison

April 10, 2011

Dear Piecemakers,

My name is Andrew and I'm sitting here in Chino prison. Two days ago a man gave me a booklet, [Words of Life] "Book Four", and I started to read it. It talked about Jacob's trouble and how God had changed him. I felt like God was talking straight to me. I started to cry.

I hope and pray that God can change me and make me new.

Piecemakers, is there a way you can send me more booklets, because I would really like to learn more about how God can change a man.

Thank you very much,

Andrew

Hello my dear Andrew,

Your letter made us cry. By us I am talking about your new family, the Piecemakers. We will send you one book at a time until you have all eight books.

If you devour them, they will feed your little baby Jesus in your heart and he will grow into the full stature of Christ. They are the gospel for the end of this age and the beginning of a new age. Use your time wisely and seek God with a vengeance.

We are in the time of the harvest.

The month of October was the late and big harvest in Israel. Remember, Israel refers to God's people and not a country. They are the chosen ones to bring forth a new world, a new generation.

Now back to the harvest. It is the end of the world. Expect America to be harvested. At harvest time a great separation takes place. The wheat is separated from the stalk and then the straw, wood and stubble are removed. The tares are definitely sifted out and thrown into the fire. The true wheat, the chosen ones, are taken into the barn and used for food to feed a hungry world. So let us all make sure we are a wheat, prepared for the Master's use.

It takes much sifting to bring forth an unencumbered pure grain of wheat which can be used as food or for reproduction for "lest a seed fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone." Yes, like the disciples of old, we would see Jesus.

Now let us take the above story personally. You are being harvested. That is why you are bewildered, hurt, angry and all the other things we feel as all our rights are taken from us. You will come through all of your suffering with a deeper understanding and feeling for your countrymen.

So we see all things do work together for good.

Love and kisses,

Marie
