

November 24, 2008

My dear fellow prisoners of the Lord Jesus Christ,

The rain falls on the just and the unjust. By unjust I am referring to those who just want a pen pal and things. The just are the ones who want God with a whole heart. Those are the ones God wants us to nurture and grow up as He needs gallant, holy men and women as a new age is looming in on us. The Christian age is over and the kingdom of God is at hand. "Get ready the evening shadows fall. Can't you hear the angels call," beckoning into a new age???? The road is rough, the pain is tough. However, those who persevere and endure will be well rewarded.

We are sending out this questionnaire as a guide for us as to what your desires are.

1. Do you want and read the "Words of Life"??
2. Are you looking for a pen pal only and are content with life as you know it???
3. Are you willing to include in your letters what you are gaining and understanding out of the Words of Life???

These books are expensive and we hear from others that they are found in the trash or pages torn out and used to write on.

They should be as prized as the Bible and should be your daily bread as you are birthed by the gospel.

If you are looking only for a pen pal, we will send a pen pal list. God's grace to all of you.

Marie