Mr. Greenhut —

Should criminals who are not sorry for their crimes be allowed to get away without serving any jail time???? —

Well, Mr. Greenhut, first I would ask what is your definition of a criminal?? You say one who commits a crime??? And then I could ask, and what is a crime?? Are the little codes made up by some morons the measuring rod for our legal system, or is in fact the Ten Commandments our measuring rod???

Seeing as I have been through the torture chamber of the corrupt court system with judges who are legal robots, I find the only answer to our problem is a big wipeout of the whole system . . . and that will only come as we stop paying our taxes as our forefathers did years ago.

If, indeed, the head of a business is responsible for the business he runs as the judge told me when sentencing me, then Carona should have a life sentence for his OCJ business. If Orange County Jail is a permitted place, how come the sinks are all plugged, the shower curtains ripped, the filth worse than a pig pen, murdering by his deputies, suicides. . . torture chambers, say nothing of the temperature of the cells being in the 50s. . . Carona is not only a criminal, he is a maniac and should be put in a mental institution.

I am in contact of hundreds of prisoners who are sentenced to life for no crime. We, the taxpayers, are paying for a dinosaur called our prisons. I, for one, will pay no more taxes as I carry the guilt of injustice by feeding the very thing we all abhor.

Surely we as a supposed benevolent society and an example for the world have become more corrupt and disgraceful than any country in the history of mankind. And to think we go abroad forcing our filth on other countries telling them we are doing them a service!!!! Spare me the democratic, hypocritical way of life. May God temper His wrath with mercy as He destroys this country worse than corrupt Rome.

THE WHOLE ROTTEN BARREL or WHAT LIES AHEAD?

When the entire barrel is full of rotten apples, instead of voting someone in and thrusting him in the barrel, it is time to destroy the barrel and the apples therein.

Now let us look at this moving picture and you tell me what is wrong with it. America has played the fool over the entire world selling them a drug called capitalism, offering peace and prosperity. Like any other drug, it made the system worse with its side effects.

Now let me see. Our national debt is a figure so large this paper is not long enough to write it. We are owned by China and... is it Russia???

We are pouring billions of dollars we print with no backing just to keep us killing those we call terrorists.

Our prisons are filled like pigs led to the slaughter, the homeless are telling the rats on the streets to move over, and yet -----

We have a leader who is to be our example whom we have thrown into the rotten barrel of apples and the first thing he does to show us he hasn't gotten rotten as yet is this. To make his followers idolize him, he throws a big bash in his honor like the kings and queens of old costing the ones he is supposedly concerned about 150 plus million dollars, plus the cost of 20, 000 security guards to guard our king and queen so no harm comes to them. Now mind you the ones paying for this big bash have hardly a pot to pee in and yet they are cheering and screaming, for they have built a golden calf they call their savior.

Now if you cannot see what is wrong with this picture it is perhaps because you are dancing around the golden calf.

God never does anything unless He lets His servants know what He is about to do. And I am here to tell you, Moses crashing the tablets of stone is mild compared to what I foresee as the real Saviour, God Himself, makes His appearance.
